To the Parent/Guardian:

Camp Villa Marie has instituted certain policies to help each camper derive the maximum benefit from his/her camping experience. Throughout the years, we have found by asking each parent/guardian to abide by the following policies, our mission is easily attained. We ask that you read the following closely and then sign the application if you are in full agreement with our policies.

1. Campers who are ill and/or have physical conditions that may be contagious to others are asked to refrain from attending the camp
2. Campers who are ill or who become ill during camp, and/or have physical conditions that may be contagious to others will be sent home.
3. Campers who exhibit persistent behavior disorders towards themselves and/or others that put themselves, other campers, or staff at risk will be sent home.
4. Parents/guardians will keep the camp director notified of any changes in their address or telephone numbers and changes in their emergency contact person from now till the end of camp.
5. There is no visitor's day. Parents and guardians are encouraged to talk to the camp director, camp nurse, or camper's counselor if there is any issue or concern. No camper is permitted to leave camp at any time during the session except to visit medical facilities or participate in organized camp trips.

Your signature to this application indicates that you desire to cooperate with Camp Villa Marie and grants our staff your permission to carry out our policies and procedures as indicated.
